Proposed Creative Europe project – to which project are you looking for partners?

Sector or field	Artistic crafts, folk arts, contemporary design, cultural tourism, digitalization.
Description or summary of the proposed project	About project "Living Heritage": the preservation of intangible cultural heritage is essential for safeguarding Europe's rich diversity of artistic crafts and knowledge. The project aims to preserve, promote, and transmit European traditional craft knowledge in a way that ensures their relevance to modern generations. European traditional crafts, characterized by their unique techniques, stories, and cultural contexts, are vital assets of the Union's shared identity. However, without contemporary relevance and dynamic methods of transmission, these skills risk fading into obsolescence. To avoid, Living Heritage project proposes a multi-faceted approach to ensure that this heritage not only survives but thrives as an active, vibrant part of today's cultural and economic landscape.
